

is the most bitterly fought for place in the whole gathering. It is an established fact that if O'Connor, who represents the radicals of the party, is chosen for chairman, a platform of decided radical planks will be adopted and this is what the old line democrats are fighting against. The talk on every hand is to the effect that this year there is a chance to win and that the chances should not be jeopardized by a platform that would repel the democrats of the time before the silver craze. There are some radical democrats who appear not to have eliminated all the free silver spirit from their make-up and they are the ones who are making the trouble.

Machine Broken

that Kuro-patkin has reached Mukden safely. It is then thought he will reorganize the army and be ready to meet the Japanese on a battlefield of his own choosing. All hopes of his going to the aid of Port Arthur has been abandoned.

The reports announce that the Liao-yang battle continued until midnight with a frightful slaughter. The Japanese succeeded in getting a column across the Taltser and Kuro-patkin gave the order to fall back on the main works but owing to the Japanese pressure this movement was not executed. The armies slept on their positions and at six this morning the battle had not been terminated. General Kuro-patkin commanding a portion of the Russian fighting line, was seriously wounded yesterday.

A report the Japanese under Kuroki had crossed the Taltse river was confirmed in an official dispatch from Sakharoff. The dispatches state a division of foot soldiers and cavalry and artillery crossed first and covered the advance of further detachments. After fording the river the Japanese advanced towards Liao-yang in two bodies, one marching due west and the other by way of the Contain mines. Fierce fighting ensued between the leading ranks of Russians and Japanese. An exchange telegram reports the official confirmation has been received by the Japanese of the report the Russian right center is in full retreat with Gens. Oku and Nodzu in pursuit. Also that Kuroki has succeeded in turning Kuro-patkin's position from the north.

WHAT IS COMING TO LOCAL STAGE

PROSPECTUS OF THEATRICAL SEASON JUST OPENING.

SWAY OF MUSICAL COMEDIES

Promises To Be Stronger Than Ever Before—Some of the Dates Ahead.

Admirers of the roaring farce, the thrilling melodrama, the poignant and dainty musical comedy, the classical drama, the old, old "show" with the two Topsy's, as necessary to budding youth as vaccination, the dramatized novel, the burlesque, and the light comedy—anunuscent of all tastes and convictions will find some compensation for the cold winter ahead in the attractive bookings which Manager Myers has listed for the theatrical season just commenced. To begin with, "The Girl from Dixie," which scored a big hit on August 19, the opening night, will play a return date on February 3. That is a long way ahead, but not far removed from Christmas Day when the famous military drama "Arizona" will hold the boards both afternoon and evening.

Bookings for September. Closer at hand are the bookings for September. The thrilling melodrama, "The Little Outcast," will be presented afternoon and evening of Labor Day, next Monday. James T. Powers and his company of sixty people appear in the musical comedy "San Toy" on the Tuesday evening following. The old favorites, "The Irish Pawns" and "The Irish Pawns" are to be here Sept. 15, and "Under Southern Skies," a play built on lines similar to "The Old Homestead," and which pleased last year, will hold the boards on the afternoon and evening of the 17th. Another musical comedy company under the management of John C. Fisher, who supervises the production of "San Toy," is to be here on the 19th. "The Girl from Dixie" is its name. The Swedish comedy-drama, "Yon Yonson," is booked for Sept. 22 and on the 30th the new musical comedy "Buster Brown," which has been playing at the Great Northern, Chicago, for six weeks past, will be offered on the local stage.

Thomas Jefferson. Thomas Jefferson, son of the famous dean of the American stage, will appear in his father's masterpiece, "Rip Van Winkle," on the afternoon and evening of Oct. 15. William and Joseph Jefferson, Jr., appeared here two years ago in "The Rivals." Howe's Moving Pictures will be seen on Nov. 3, and the Florida De Voss Repertory Co. will be here the week of Nov. 7. Other ante-Christmas bookings are: Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," on Nov. 15, the musical comedy "Kudolph and Adolph," on Nov. 30, and Hal Reid's "Human Heart" on Dec. 13.

Robert Edeson. The melodrama "Life in Name Only" is listed for Dec. 31. Robert Edeson in "Ransom's Folly," a dramatization of Richard Harding Davis' novel of the same name, appears on January 11 and the afternoon and evening of the 21st will be devoted to performances of "The Devil's Auction." The Himmelfeld Stock Co. in repertoire, claim the week of Jan. 23. February opens up with a burlesque "Innocent Maids," on the evening of the 2nd, with "The Girl from Dixie" on the evening following. "The Chinese Honeymoon," musical comedy, comes Feb. 9, and Mason & Mason, stars in a musical comedy that has not yet been named, will hold the boards on Feb. 17.

Carle and Mildred Holland. Mildred Holland comes to Janesville with a new play on Feb. 27 and on the 2nd of March Richard Carle comes back with "The Tenderfoot," musical comedy. Nixon & Zimmerman's company in "The Strollers" appears on March 21. Charles Loder in a new musical comedy-drama has reserved the evening of March 30. Barlow's Minstrels will be heard on April 20; another "Little Eva" will charm the children on the 22nd, and the melodrama "For Her Sake" will appear on the 25th. John C. Fisher's splendid spectacle, "The Silver Slipper," is booked for May 4 and "Ole Oleson" for May 31.

HOW TO FIND OUT

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains the linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it, or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, relieves every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and sendings pain in passing it, or effects following use of liquor, wine or beer and even comes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, and a book that tells all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing be sure to mention that you read this generous offer in the Janesville Gazette. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

"The County Chairman," and "The Shogun." "The Prince of Pilsen," "The Forbidden Land," "The Maid and the Mummy," "The Virgilian," "Dances in Toyland," "The Wizard of Oz," "The Crisis," Ezra Kendall, Robert M. Mott, Darius Farnum, Ward & Janel, Charles B. Hanford, and many other productions and stars. Not all of those enumerated are likely to be taken on, of course, and there will doubtless be a number of high class attractions not mentioned which will be booked much later in the season. "Shakespeare and the classical drama will certainly not be overlooked," said Manager Myers this afternoon, "though musical comedy seems to be the thing the people want nowadays."

LITTLE OUTCAST. Visions of the Orient, with its mystic and magnificence, are vividly pictured in the second act of "A Little Outcast," where for the first time in any production a correct view of a typical Chinese restaurant is given. It is a replica of the world famous one on Pell street, in New York's Chinatown, and its beauty is accentuated by the brilliant evening costumes of a party of society leaders who are out "strolling" after the theatre. It is one of the most fascinating scenes ever presented. The gorgeous hangings with gold embroidered dragons and strange birds, the rich Oriental colorings and the half concealed alcoves for the use of the opium smokers are accurate representations and furnish a superb setting for some very good acting.

CROOK WITH GLASS EYE GETS OFF EASY

"Devoted Wife" of the Man Arrested Here Circus Day, Moves Boston Court to Tears.

Out of Boston comes the story of another episode in the very recent career of the crook with the glass eye who was imprisoned here on circus day and subsequently delivered over to Detective Sergeant W. H. Pelton of "The Hub" in Oshkosh last week. The crook was "John Williams" at Janesville. He was recognized as "J. W. Downey" at Oshkosh. And now in Boston, the city that has expended $20,000 in attempting to run him down for the robbery two years ago of Thomas Hart, the then mayor, he is welcomed as "W. A. Murray."

Ignored the dispatch sent out from the "bean city" last night recounting the partial rescue of W. A. Murray, a convicted pickpocket brought over from Oshkosh, by the tears and devotion of a wife. Soft-hearted indeed must be the wise ones in that eastern city. "Mrs. Murray, a well dressed woman of about 30, of pretty face and pleasant manner, pleaded hard and long with Judge Bennett to make the sentence as light as possible, for it was a foregone conclusion that her husband would be convicted. Tears filled her eyes as she told the story of her devotion to her husband, and of the sacrifices she had made in order to appear in his behalf. She said it was not until his arrest that she had any inkling of the wrong doings in which he was engaged. She had sold everything in order to raise money with which to defend him. Judge Bennett listened to her story attentively, and let Murray off with six months, the minimum.

"With a kiss that lasted fully a minute, and a hug that meant more to any two souls (never less, anyone acquainted with the facts would say) they parted. Murray was to be taken away to serve his sentence, and his wife to seek work at which she may support herself until they are united again."

THE CRACK GOLFER LIKES OUR LINKS

Captain Forsyth of Detroit Club, Says Janesville Has Michigan Cities Outclassed.

Capt. Forsyth of the Detroit golf club has been enjoying the game on the Janesville links in this city. He says that the local grounds remind him, somewhat of those in southern Michigan, notably the ones at Ann Arbor, and Ypsilanti—ten miles distant—but that the Janesville course from a golfer's standpoint is much superior. He expects to travel some distance before he encounters anything in that line that can beat the Bower city.

MAY CHARGE MORE FOR THEIR BREAD

High Price of Flour Makes Bread Baking at Five Cents Unprofitable.

The extreme high price of flour with conditions pointing favorably to further increases puts things in a grave condition for the bakers of the city. At the present price of flour bread baking at the prevailing prices is very unprofitable and there has been serious talk of raising the price to six cents per loaf, which may come to pass within a short time if the price of wheat and flour does not take a decline.

Not since the high prices of cereals during the Spanish-American war has flour cost as much as it does now and unless the prices take a sudden decline there must be a change in the price of bread. All of the larger bakers of the city have had conferences and most of them feel that the proper course, to pursue is to raise the price of the baked product.

Others are in favor of reducing the weight of the loaves to such an extent that the smaller loaf can be retailed at five cents and still leave a small profit for the baker.

The latter course will undoubtedly be the one taken, for it would be less inconvenient for both the bakers and the consumers. The six-cent price would make considerable difference in the handling or selling of the bread, while the housewife would still be receiving the value of her money.

The loaves as they have been made up to a recent date weigh from sixteen to eighteen ounces when baked but the increase has made it impossible for the bakers to put more than a pound in a loaf. If the wheat remains at the present high figure or goes higher it will be necessary to decrease the weight to a little less than a pound. If there is any change made it will be a move by the larger bakers of the city and there will be no bread "war" as has been intimated. The merchants have had experience with bread wars and they care for no more of them.

Most of the bakers carry a large amount of flour on hand all the time and the presence of this has enabled them to sell at the prevailing price of five cents per loaf without a loss, but as soon as this supply is exhausted there must be some change. One of the largest bakers in the city said this morning that he expected the change if it did come would be in a few days.

PROF. MAYNE'S BOOK MEETS WITH FAVOR

"First Principles of Agriculture" by Former Janesville Man, Fills Long-Felt Want.

The teachers' institute which recently closed brought to the attention of the Rock county teachers a new volume on agriculture, of which D. D. Mayne, formerly superintendent of schools in this city and now principal of the Minnesota Agricultural college, is the author. The book is designed for study in the seventh and eighth grades of the rural schools. Those competent to judge say that it is the only book of its kind on the market, which a child in those grades can master. This will insure a practical monopoly to Mayne's book. For some time past rural teachers have been compelled to pass an examination in agriculture, and the subject is supposed to be taught in the rural schools. As a matter of fact, it has not been, because there has been no suitable book available which could be used as a text. The appearance of Mayne's little book bids fair to change the status of agriculture as a common school study. Most of the other books have been too scientific and heavy. Principal Mayne's volume contains enough science to make it useful and accurate, while at the same time it is written in clear, terse, simple English, which makes the book interesting to the farmer and the layman. It is intensely practical. Everything is written with a view to having it put in practice. Noxious weeds are accurately pictured and described and methods of extermination given. The same is true of harmful insects. The book has many colored plates and is an attractive volume. Whereas farmers heretofore have not looked with favor upon teaching agriculture from a book, yet this one contains so many helpful things that it would seem likely to conquer the farmer's prejudice and appeal to his common sense. It is practical, plain, and speaks in the language of the farmer and to urge its use in the rural schools and to make it the basis of his examinations. Many other superintendents have expressed a similar determination.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief. What a fortunate provision of nature it is that deprives the mind of mental suffering; for how poignant would be the grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid, in the years gone by. For the first time, the latest and a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that infests the hair follicles. Newbro's Herptile absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as naturally. Send 10c. in stamps for drug lists. Send 10c. in stamps for drug lists. HAD HAIR CAUGHT IN THE MACHINERY

Miss Mabel Wilson Was Victim of a Terrible Experience at the Riverside Laundry.

While hanging a weight on the collar ironer at the Riverside laundry yesterday, Miss Mabel Wilson, an employee, had her hair caught in some of the mechanism and was dragged under the machine. Her screams attracted the attention of the other girls, several of whom were too much overcome to act. One, however, had presence of mind to call Foreman Van Beynum and prompt action on his part saved her from serious injury. The power was shut off just as her head was being drawn into the machine. The young woman is twenty years of age and came here from Ft. Atkinson. She was terribly frightened but not otherwise injured, and was removed to her home on Rager avenue in a hack.

OVER THOUSAND IN THE PARADE

LABOR DAY DEMONSTRATION TO BE A BIG ONE.

FINE PRIZES FOR THE GAMES

Have Been Hung Up by Public Spirited Citizens—Will Reward Best Waltzers at Ball.

Twelve hundred men in the line of march! That is what the committee in charge of the big Labor day celebration in Janesville next Monday confidently anticipate at this time. Fort Atkinson and several of the other neighboring towns have already sent word that they will be represented by a big delegation. No efforts have been spared to boom the big festival day in this city. Banners have been swung from the International and big posters announcing the day's program have been hung in conspicuous places throughout all of the surrounding country.

Contests and Games. The committee consisting of Messrs. Cooper, Bert Holleran, and Burnham have made the necessary arrangements for the afternoon games and announce the following contests to take place at 2:30 p. m. in front of the city hall:

100 yd. dash for secretaries of various unions who have been in office not less than three months. Three fine fountain pens offered as prizes. Sack race—All union men eligible. First prize, a porch shade valued at $2. Second prize, a box of cigars. 100 yd. dash—Open to amateurs. First and second prizes—boxes of cigars.

Award of two prizes consisting of boxes of cigars to the two men able to show the largest totals secured by adding the figures denoting their ages to the figures denoting the number of years they have held union cards.

There will be a baseball game at Athletic park at four o'clock in the afternoon but the names who are to compete have not yet been chosen. The Street Car Co. has agreed to furnish ample facilities for handling the crowd.

For the Best Waltzers. While all are cordially bidden to the grand ball for which Baldwin & Rehfeld's orchestra will furnish the music in the evening, only union men will be allowed to compete for the prizes to be awarded the best lady and gentlemen waltzers. A pair of ladies' shoes has been hung up by the Marzluft Co. and a pair of gentlemen's shoes by the Western Shoe Co. People who do not pretend to work for a living and have nothing to do, other than cultivate the graces, should rightfully be excluded from the contest, according to T. J. McKelgue. It wouldn't be fair to let in "professionals." Privileges on the streets will be let to doll-racks and other harmless amusement enterprises but no gambling devices or games will be permitted.

I cannot name the rare joys, the infinite delights that intoxicate me since taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Smith Drug Co.

VERDICT OF THE PARTY

From the report of the Committee on Credentials to the REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, which was unanimously adopted by the 1st convention, June 25, 1904.

Our committee report it to be their final judgment that the convention which elected John C. Spooner, J. V. Quarles, J. W. Embrook and Emil Bensch as delegates at large, and their alternates at large, to this convention from the state of Wisconsin WAS THE REGULAR CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN WISCONSIN, and that the delegates elected by it are the regular elected delegates at large from the state of Wisconsin to the republican convention, and, as such, are entitled to seats in this convention.

THE EXPORTS

Manufactures formed nearly one-half of the exports from the United States in the month of July. Speaking with statistical accuracy, they formed 48.27 per cent. of the total domestic exports. For the first time in the history of the United States manufactures are exceeding agricultural products in the exportation of domestic products. Figures first issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor, through its Bureau of Statistics, show that in the month of July manufactures exported amounted to 40 million dollars, against 31 millions of agricultural products; and in the month of June manufactures amounted to nearly 42 millions, against 37 1-4 millions of agricultural products. In former years agricultural products have greatly exceeded manufactures in the exports of the country, and it is only in recent months that manufactures have equaled or exceeded agricultural products in the export statements.

Even in the seven months ending with July, 1904, agricultural products exceeded manufactures by nearly 100 million dollars, but in the month of May, 1904, manufactures for the first time in the history of the country exceeded agricultural products in the statement of domestic exports, and this was again the case in June and in July. In the month of May, 1904, exports of manufactures exceeded agricultural products by about 1 million dollars; in June the excess of manufactures over agricultural products was over 4 million dollars; and in July the excess of manufactures over agricultural products was nearly 9 million dollars. In the three months of May, June, and July, 1904, the total value of agricultural products exported was $106,503,123, while the total value of manufactures exported in the same period was $120,789,769.

That there is a marked growth in the exportation of manufactures is shown by a comparison of the figures of 1904 with those of earlier years. The total value of manufactures exported in the 7 months ending with July, 1904, is $285,495,728, or an average of more than 40 million dollars per month. In the 7 months ending with July, 1903, the total was $244,607,852, an average of 35 millions per month. At this rate of increase the exports of manufactures during the calendar year 1904 would exceed those of 1903 by about 60 million dollars, and bring the grand total for the year far in excess of any preceding year.

While it is true, as above stated, that the exports of manufactures in the months of May, June and July have exceeded the exports of agricultural products, it should not be understood that the total manufactures exported during the entire year will exceed the total value of agricultural products exported. It is quite apparent, however, that the proportion which manufactures form of the total exports is steadily increasing and that the proportion which agricultural products form of the total exports is steadily decreasing.

In the fiscal year just ended agricultural products formed a smaller percentage of the total exports than ever before, falling for the first time below 50 per cent. In 1880 agricultural products formed 83 per cent. of the total exports; in 1890, 74 per cent.; and in 1904, 48.27 per cent. Manufactures in 1880 formed 12.4 per cent. of the total exports; in 1890, 17.8 per cent.; and in 1904, 31.52 per cent. The total value of agricultural products exported in 1880 was $86 million dollars; in 1890, 630 millions, and in 1904, 853 millions, an increase in 1904 of 25 per cent. over 1880. Manufactures exported in 1880 amounted to 103 millions; in 1890, 151 millions, and in 1904, 452 millions, an increase in 1904 of 340 per cent. over 1880.

That this change in the character of the exports of the country—a movement from agricultural products toward manufactures—is due rather to an increase in the home production of manufactures than to any actual decrease in the home production of agricultural products is apparent upon a study of the statistical tables of the Census Bureau and Bureau of Statistics, which show the home production in these two great classes.

The census tables show a rapid movement of population from the agricultural sections toward the manufacturing centers, and as a result a smaller proportion of the total population is engaged in the production of food, while a larger proportion is producing manufactures instead of supplies, thus diminishing the surplus available for exportation.

THE DEMOCRATS.

Rock county democrats have decided to stand on their own footing. Sink or swim, survive or perish, they mean to end the present campaign as democrats and not allow the name mugwump to be cast up at them. The scenes which were enacted at the democratic county convention on Saturday last were ones which will do much towards uniting the party which split on the free silver question eight years ago. There was a time when the word democracy meant legion of votes in Wisconsin. Then came the free silver heresy and the other elements which broke up the party and the Wisconsin men followed the false prophets. Some, however, remained true to democracy and these have now joined their erring brothers once more in an attempt to wrest the reins of government from the republicans. The democratic state convention is today deliberating at Oshkosh on the ways and means that may avail in ousting the republicans from the state government and delivering the state over to the national democratic party with its electoral vote. They are led by men of brawn and men of brain and as a united party they are to be feared. Rock county is ably represented at this gathering and Janesville may well be proud of its representatives whose opinions are sought and whose councils are listened to. The democrats of Rock county in convention assembled last Saturday turned down the disgruntled republicans and their outcries of allegiance. In this they showed their stamina and deserve the credit of the entire community. Rock county is hopelessly republican. However, aided by the disgruntled voters there was a chance to win but this the democrats turned down. Survive or perish the cause of Rock county democracy wins or loses with a name unarmished by the word "fusion."

ADVERTISING.

Publicity is an element in the every day business man's life just as important as his stock of goods if he really knew it. Just as important as his location and equipment of his store. There was never an institution founded that did not have a bureau of publicity connected in some way with it. This world would be a dull place if we did not have the newspapers to tell us what the rest of the world is doing. The telegraph, the telephone, fast presses and linotype machines have facilitated the distribution of news. It is safe to say that every citizen of Janesville reads a newspaper. His own or some one else's each day. Some people read it from start to finish, some read it hurriedly, but it is also safe to say that an advertisement of a special sale, a special brand of goods or a special inducement to purchase will be known by every Janesville resident within a few hours after the paper is off the press. News of this nature spreads quickly and a judicious advertisement tastefully gotten up to attract the eye does much to sell goods otherwise unsalable. Results do not come in a moment or through one insertion, but if it is true that the dripping of water will wear away a stone it is also true that continuous advertisements will bring a desired result.

Advertising, like every part of a business life, should be made a study. Successful advertising is common sense. A good ad. writer has studied his business thoroughly and knows the good points.

Janesville merchants should appreciate that it is only by advertising their wares they can really tell the people what they have to sell. Many a seemingly prosperous merchant in cities no bigger than Janesville has found the judicious use of printer's ink helps dispose of shop-worn goods at a profit even to consumer and seller.

If North had had a newspaper at his disposal to tell of the great flood instead of recounting it by word of mouth he might have been believed. Advertising pays even if disasters are foretold.

The art of advertising is as much one of the necessities in the business world today as it is to know how to weigh sugar and coffee or measure a yard of cloth.

Illinois republicans had a scrap at their state convention but they seem to have made it all up and are now working tooth and nail against the common free democracy.

First, the Japs, then the Russians, seem to be ahead, but the Russians are still retreating when they can.

Roosevelt's speech is to be a dandy. Twelve thousand words long and the printer not through yet.

PRESS COMMENT.

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: In addition to other troubles, England is now trying to saddle the responsibility for the English sparrow on poor Russia.

Oshkosh Times: It must be an awful sin to live rich when so many are trying to prevent others from doing so.

Milwaukee News: This is not a good year for politicians to try and "gumshoe" into office. The voters are Missourians. They want to be shown.

Appleton Post: Judge Parker assures the voters that the democracy is the coming party. The only trouble is that it always arrive four years behind time.

Milwaukee Sentinel: The supreme court ought to be humbly conscious of the honor paid it by the state administration in condescending to filing an answer in the election suit.

Philadelphia Inquirer: As it appears to the political expert, Candidate Parker's rye fields should attract the farmer vote, and their product the liquor vote, thus getting a double clinch on the ballot box.

Seattle Post Intelligence: Apparently England intends to annex Tibet to India, as she protests officially that she intends to get out as soon as she can; probably as soon as she gets out of Egypt.

Sheboygan Journal: If every shell fired by the Japs at Port Arthur had hit the mark, there wouldn't be anything there but a pyramid of cannon balls.

Menasha Record: Owing to the agitation of the "Go-Gooks" the St. Louis Expo is to be kept closed Sunday. But the gambling halls and frog shops are to be kept open on the sacred day.

Chicago Tribune: Persons who wish to "enthus" or do a "stunt" may do so, according to the latest dictionary, with the express understanding that they become thereby colloquial and slangy.

Chicago Inter Ocean: And it must be said that the Chicagoan who was robbed in the Sahara desert made an expensive and almost unnecessary journey, in view of the fact that the same thing is happening daily to Chicagoans within the city limits.

Chicago Record-Herald: Mr. Barney Oldfield has decided to quit automobile racing because he has killed several people. The remarkable feature of the case is found in the fact that the public patiently permitted Barney to quit voluntarily.

Madison Journal: Wisconsin is coming to the front in another direction. It is said that Badger canned peas actually excel the celebrated French peas and are in many places served as the French article which has such a reputation.

Florence Mining News: The Chicago Dairy Produce says that Senator Quarles has put money in the pocket of every Wisconsin man who milks a cow. The governor, who covets his seat, has not told why that million and a half was taken out of those pockets this year in excess of other years.

Green Bay Gazette: The suspicion among democrats that ex-Senator Vilas was after the nomination for governor is dying out and one to the effect that he wants an endorsement as United States senator is taking its place.

Fond du Lac Reporter: David H. Hill has announced that he will retire permanently from politics at the end of the present campaign. Politics will be decidedly willing to have the decree entered and would cheerfully consent to any stipulated alimony.

Milwaukee News: In shaping the course of the party to appeal to the republican factions, the democratic managers have pursued a course that could have no other effect than to alienate democrats. It is to be hoped that they have profited from the party's experiences in recent elections, but the nomination of Mr. Grothofurst, a La Follette appointee, in the Third district, hardly gives promise that the lessons of the past have been understood or heeded.

Sturgeon Bay Advocate: None of the administration papers have as yet attempted to show where the more than $600,000 has gone to the was expended for carrying on the state government last year over that of the previous year. The people are all anxious to learn where this large additional sum of money went to, and as the secretary of state has refused to show his books to any other than those that are loyal to Governor La Follette, it is up to the journalists who are in good standing with the latter to furnish the information desired.

EVANSVILLE HAS A GREAT FAIRMUCH INTEREST DISPLAYED IN THE EXHIBITS MADE.

GOOD RACES TAKE PLACE

Horse Injured in the Running Races
Yesterday—Much Live Stock
In Pens.

Janesville people who visited Evansville yesterday and attended the fair announce that this year's fair is the greatest ever held in that city. Tuesday was children's day and Wednesday was Janesville day. The Imperial band and its excellent music greeted the fairgoers before they reached the inside of the enclosure. In the morning Mrs. Florence Richards, national lecturer and organizer for the W. C. T. U., gave a most interesting talk. She took for her subject "The Young Man, His Friends and His Foes." The principal races for the day were the 2:38 trot, the 2:12 pace and the 2:40 pace. Ham 2:12 pace and Janesville had a horse in the last race.

More Entries
There has been an increase in the number of entries over last year. In all there are about four hundred more entries than last year in every department. There is a fine display of buggies, farm machinery and farm gates. The poultry department is full to overflowing. Even tents have been put up to contain the exhibits that have been brought. There is a great display of fruits and flowers and of excellent quality. The fine arts exhibits are exceptionally fine and the culinary display is not lacking.

Live Stock
There is much more live stock on exhibition than in past years. Pure bred stock of all kinds is a great attraction. The stalls are full and extra ones have been erected for the large being to accommodate the animals that have been brought from far and near to compete for the coveted blue ribbons.

Special Features
Among the special daily attractions are the Flying Haidwins on the trapeze and on the ladder. Then there is the riderless running horse, the Earthquake Pilot, and Prof. Ackerman, the horse trainer. Then there is the trick horse Jerry who stops breathing when told to and does many other wonderful feats.

An Accident
In the running race yesterday afternoon Pickett, a horse owned by William Madden of Edgerton, fell, breaking his leg and tearing his hoof in such a manner that it was necessary to shoot him. The accident happened just as he came under the wire, making a sensational finish to the race. The rider, Tom Madden, was not seriously injured, and a purse was made up among the spectators and handed him. The attendance Wednesday was thirty-five hundred.

GEO. SUTHERLAND
LEAVES OSHKOSHReturned From Convention Last Evening—Enthusiasm at Highest Pitch in Years.

George G. Sutherland who was one of the Janesville delegates to the democratic state convention returned last evening from Oshkosh, called here by some important business. He says that the gathering is perhaps the most representative of a high class of citizenship and the most enthusiastic in twenty years. Oshkosh is sparing no efforts to make the delegates welcome and the republicans and democrats alike are exerting themselves to anticipate the wants and provide for the comfort and pleasure of every individual visitor. At the time Mr. Sutherland left, the committee on resolutions was expected to bring in a report and a heated debate on the floor of the convention seemed probable, but he thinks now that the questions involved, having been threshed out by the committee, will simply be decided by a vote without extended argument. The conservative wing, he believes, will control and the convention will get to the nominations today. Last night there was nothing to indicate that any obstacle would be placed in the way of the nomination of George W. Peck for governor, though many expressed an opinion that ex-Senator Vilas could not be elected. He was heard to say the word "No" to the nomination of Vilas. It was believed to be the likelihood of his doing this, however, Andrew Johnson of Edgerton last night appeared to be in the lead among the candidates for the nomination for state treasurer.

THE MOON'S PHASES
OF SMALL ACCOUNTRace of Unbelievers Have Forsaken
Old Traditions—Sign That Failed Today

"This morning when I saw the gas-samplers like webs and heavy dew on the grass I was sure of a pleasant day," said a well-known citizen at the city hall this morning. "It is one of the best signs I know of but is not infallible, as you see. There are few signs I take any stock in, and this is one of them. There were ten times as many people who based their faith and life on signs a decade or two ago, as you will find nowadays. In those days few would dare to commence a task they could not finish on Friday and scarcely anyone thought of planting or harvesting without consulting the moon's phases. But a race of unbelievers has sprung up in the last score or more of years and few of these curious superstitions longer wield much influence. There are a good many of course, who still consult the almanacs but that is due, I think, mostly to the fact that men like Hicks have made some lucky guesses in the past and also, to the natural human tendency to overlook the many prophecies hazarded which never panned out."

PURTELL IS IN
KEMPFF'S SHOESFormer Deputy Becomes Acting State
Treasurer for the Time Being.

Until W. D. Connor of Marshfield, chairman of the La Follette state central committee, finds a suitable man of German American descent to fill the vacancy caused by the discharge of John J. Kempff as state treasurer, he and Thomas M. Purtell will be in charge of the state funds. Mr. Purtell was appointed yesterday by the governor as acting treasurer. He qualified for the position and furnished $100,000 bonds. Mr. Purtell will under no conditions serve the unexpired term of Mr. Kempff. Mr. Connor is looking for a wealthy German American who will be in a position to contribute largely to the La Follette campaign fund and who will appease the German American vote as the Germans of the state were much wrought up over the discharge of Mr. Kempff. The work of checking up the books is still in progress and all state depository banks have been notified of the appointment of Mr. Kempff.

BOUGHT CATTLE
OF INMANN BROS.Japanese Agents Purchase Large Numbers of Brown Swiss Cattle in Rock County.

The agents of the Japanese government who spent some time in this locality recently looking up live stock, made numerous purchases from breeders near Beloit. Among the purchases were four head of brown Swiss cattle of Inman brothers of Plymouth. The Japanese gentlemen are not novices in the stock business and know about what they want and what it is worth to them. They are not confining themselves to any particular breed of cattle or hogs, provided the stock will thrive in their country. They have long been experimenting with American stock and are learning that we have much of that which is the best on earth. The Inman cattle will be shipped with the greatest care to land them in good condition. This was not the first visit of the Japanese to this locality and they have before bought some stock that has suited them. The same agents bought swine of A. P. Lovejoy and a number of cattle at Honey Creek, Wis.

SUIT AFTER SUIT
TO BE DECIDEDAdministration Has Many Law Suits
on Its Hands To Be Decided.

With the La Follette faction of the republican party in Wisconsin truly "one war doth on another tread."

A month ago there was a prospect of legal action to undo the work of the La Follette state central committee in "stealing" the republican state convention. This was realized and the La Follette attorneys set themselves to the task of fighting that battle. Then the administration found an opportunity of making trouble for State Treasurer Kempff by reason of irregularities in his office and proceeded to get him off the La Follette ticket and out of his office. Getting him off the ticket developed a lawsuit in the circuit court of Milwaukee county against the La Follette state committee and throwing him out of office has produced a litigation in the supreme court against Governor La Follette and other state officers. The administration will make answer to the last action in the supreme court Tuesday. The declaration is made that Governor La Follette will pay before the court Tuesday the facts of the alleged embezzlement by the treasurer of some $3,500 of state funds received by him in the sales of state lands made by him. The claim will be made that the only error committed by the governor in this regard was to give Mr. Kempff too much time before throwing him out of the treasury department.

The situation is one unprecedented in Wisconsin politics and is particularly pleasing to the democrats at Oshkosh, who believe that it all gives them assurance of victory at the polls in November.

OHIO SENATOR
DISPUTES STORYSays Babcock Sees His Own Shadow
—Congress Safely Republican.

Senator Charles Dick, chairman of the republican state executive committee, takes serious exceptions to the statement made by Chairman Babcock of the national republican congressional committee that even though President Roosevelt is re-elected the house is in danger of going democratic.

General Dick, who has just returned from Chicago, where he went to confer with National Chairman Cortelyou on the Ohio campaign, says that he does not regard it as at all probable that the republicans could lose the house this year and yet elect the president.

"If we elect the president, as I believe we shall, we are almost equally certain to elect the house," declared the Ohio chairman.

Speaking of the Ohio situation, General Dick said that everything indicated that Ohio would give Roosevelt as large a majority as has ever been given any candidate for president on the republican ticket.

"It will be like taking the census," said the general. "We'll scoop in the whole lot."

Ocean Rates Are Still Kept Down
Janesville people contemplating a European trip may be interested to know the shipping conference continues. Both sides show a disposition to reach a satisfactory solution.

The German, British and other companies have made a compromise proposition to Lord Inverclyde, chairman of the Cunard line, which that company will take under consideration. Adjournment is not yet in sight.

Details of the proceedings of the shipping conference at Frankfort-on-the-Main are published by the Bureau Courier, as follows: "When the Cunard line representatives sat down to discuss the possibility of an agreement they found that the representatives of all the other participating companies had reached an understanding to receive the lines in traffic relations with them into the combination against the Cunard company without further formalities."

In the Baseball Realm

The Major League Pennant Races --- Three American Teams Setting Lively Pace---Will Boston Win in the Stretch? New York National Stars.

The pennant race in both the major leagues has reached the point where the teams that will finish in the first divisions may readily be named. The remaining part of the season is too short to enable any of the holders of low positions in the race to pull up within striking distance of the leaders. Therefore conjecture has to do chiefly with the pennant probabilities in the American league, for in the National the New Yorks appear to have the dug "clinched."

In the American league the Boston Champions, the Chicago White Sox and the New York Highlanders are having a merry war. Just which aggregation will finally forge to the fore, of course, no man can tell.

All three teams are optimistic. The fact, however, that the long lead obtained by the Beantown tribe of Col. Collins early in the season has been cut down to less than nothing is a mighty power in encouraging the New Yorks and the Chicagoans.

At the same time the loss of their lead cannot fail to take some of the snap and dash out of the Boston, and if the Chicagoans and New Yorks continue their past work they will probably fight the battle for the pennant between themselves.

The Bostonians, however, are good finishers. They play their hardest when in the home stretch, and consequently their rivals will have their work cut out for them to the very last.

The New York Americans cannot be said to be good "pluch" players. Unless they obtain a lead toward the end of the race they will have but a poor chance of winning.

Bill Dahlen, the snappy shortstop of the New York Nationals, is doing large share in keeping the tribe of McGraw at the top of the National list. Dahlen has long been rated as one of the greatest of all shortstops. He has been upholding his reputation in convincing fashion with the New Yorks.

ATHLETIC ECONOMY.

Harvard's New Policy Not Just to All Branches of Sport.

The policy of the Harvard athletic committee in demanding economy on the part of all crimson athletic organizations appears to the good sense of all, in so far as the economical features are concerned. But it does not appear just to demand that each branch of college athletics shall be self supporting or get its funds by subscription. It is a discrimination in favor of football and baseball. The former supplies nearly half the revenues for the expenses of a university's athletic teams.

Baseball is a little more than self supporting, but the other sports, such as track athletics, tennis, golf and the crews, cannot be self supporting. The crews have practically no revenues at all. It has been the custom to draw on the surplus in football to make up the deficit in other sports. There is undoubtedly great waste in the expenditures for college athletics, but the Harvard policy of retrenchment seems unwise.

It would be more reasonable to compel economy in all departments of Harvard sport until the new stadium is paid for or else to raise the deficit by subscription instead of compelling the nonrevenue-producing teams to bear the subscription or go out of existence.

Cures and Prevents Disease

The cause of ninety per cent of all disease is a faulty digestive and drainage system—the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Let one of these organs become clogged or inverted, there remains in the system many poisons that will, in time, breed disease, difficult to correct. One should never allow even a temporary stoppage of any one of these organs—they should be kept constantly in perfect working order.

TO REDUCE SWEARING BY MEN
Women in Pennsylvania Begin Crusade Against the Cussing Habit.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 1.—A vigorous crusade against swearing on the street has been begun by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. at Berwick, near here. They have posted notices all over the town, and have enlisted the aid of a number of citizens to enforce the threat it contains. The notice says:

"If any person shall willfully, premeditatedly and spitefully blaspheme or speak loosely and profanely of Almighty God, Christ Jesus, the Holy Spirit or the Scripture or the truth, such person on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding $100, and undergo an imprisonment not exceeding three months, or either, at the discretion of the court."

The ladies say, men swear so freely that "cuss words" are used in their most ordinary remarks, and that it is impossible to walk along the streets and not hear them.

NAMED BY ILLINOIS POPULISTS
James Hogan of Chicago Is Nominated for the Governorship.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 1.—In a convention marked by wrangling and personalities, the Populists of Illinois nominated the following ticket: Governor, James Hogan; lieutenant governor, William Hesse; secretary of state, N. G. Huff; auditor, W. M. Greer; treasurer, R. F. Fenton.

Mr. Hogan is a member of a produce commission firm in Chicago. The platform demands the initiative and referendum; an eight-hour law for all factories, workshops and mines; the abolition of child labor, and the suppression of sweatshops; opposes convict labor, denounces "government by injunction," and favors free distribution of uniform textbooks to schools by the state.

The down-state contingent defeated the Chicago men by depriving them of the right to vote by proxy, and most of the Chicagoans did not participate in the subsequent proceedings.

Shaped Like Old-Fashioned Cradle With Bird in It.

Boston, Sept. 1.—A peculiar orchid, named the Angles clamshell, or the cradle of Venus, was shown at the regular exhibition of flowers in Horticultural hall recently. It is shaped like the old-fashioned cradle, with the same old style covering at the head of the cradle and the boat-shaped body. Instead of the form of a baby inside, the throat of the orchid was a perfect representation of a little bird, some going so far as to say it was that of a robin. The bird and the cradle are both of a pale yellow. The eyes of the bird are a dark brown.

URGES SPORTS FOR SOLDIERS

HEALTHY WORK FOR THE MEN

Recommends Employment Suitable to the Rank and File During Times of Peace—Gen. Lee Makes a Plea for the Canteen.

Washington, Sept. 1.—In his annual report Brig. Gen. William L. Carter, commanding the department of the Visayas in the Philippines, strongly urges the encouragement of athletic sports among the soldiers as a means of recreation. He also recommends carefully regulated and abundant employment as the most wholesome antidote for the effects of Philippine service in time of peace.

He holds that the number of troops in the islands and their distribution should be definitely determined. He says that no insurrection or invasion can succeed if deprived of the control of Manila and the principal seaport cities, and that their occupation is a military necessity. Temporary construction and makeshifts of every kind only serve, he says, to develop and confirm in the minds of Filipinos the idea that Americans do not intend to hold the islands permanently, so the matter is properly one for the study of the general staff.

Urges Military Law.

A considerable portion of the report deals with the operation of military law in this department during the past year, and Gen. Carter says:

"I am of the opinion that it is of no benefit to the good people of these islands and will delay their ultimate Americanization if the evil element is allowed to threaten, harass and openly attack American soldiers without immediate action by the commanding officer nearest to the place where the offense is committed."

The reason of this complaint is a general order which leaves only the civil authorities to deal with such offenders. Gen. Carter closes his report with this tribute to the soldier of the Philippines:

"It would be impossible to find in the ranks of any army a more self-respecting, intelligent, physically fit and professionally trained body of men than those serving in the organizations assigned to duty in this department. If the high standard of professional fitness always demanded of officers is maintained, there need be no worry about the men in the ranks so long as similar material to that now drawn upon continues available."

Desertions in Texas.

Brigadier General Jesse M. Lee, commanding the Department of Texas, in his annual report, says:

"Desertions continue without any marked decrease, and they will be in about the same ratio so long as the conditions remain the same, such as the constant accessions of recruits and the ease with which men can desert upon the slightest grievance or discontent. The causes of desertion have been threshed over so much in past years that it is not necessary to repeat them here further than to say that the principal factors are drunkenness, evil associations and insensibility to the sacred obligations of the oath upon enlistment and thereafter. "While almost everything possible has been done for the cure and comfort of the soldier, the improvement of the ration, establishment of expensive and elaborately equipped exchanges, gymnasiums, amusement rooms, etc., the evil continues without material abatement. The effect of the abolition of the canteen is to increase unauthorized absenteeism, and promote drunkenness and disorder, all tending directly to induce desertions."

HAPPY WEDDING ENDS JOURNEY BY LOVERS

Couple Travel 5,000 Miles, So That Groom's Parents May Witness the Ceremony.

Bangor, Me., Sept. 1.—A journey of 12,000 miles by the bride and 5,000 miles by the groom ended in a happy wedding here when Harry O. Robinson of this city and Mrs. Ella Stolzenbach Prommel of Hamburg, Germany, were married at the residence of the groom's father.

The wedding is the culmination of a romance that began in Guayaquil, Ecuador, less than a year ago. Young Robinson, who is a graduate of Tufts and a mining engineer, while in Ecuador was taken ill. His case attracted the attention of Mrs. Prommel, who had recently arrived there after a trip of 9,000 miles from Hamburg with her son, who was to learn mining engineering. The German widow nursed the Maine engineer back to health. Although young Robinson had met beautiful women in all parts of the world with indifference, he surrendered to Mrs. Prommel and she consented to become his wife and to journey with him to his far-off home in Maine in order that his parents might witness the wedding.

Is There?

Life, of course, is made up of incongruities, but is there anything more incongruous than the sight of a man with billy goat whiskers wearing a high hat, or a washerwoman hanging out her clothes on the roof of a building in the heart of New York's financial district?
